Dear Edwin and Ruth:

Cascade Energy and Metals Corporation and Edwin A. Christian and William Lloyd Christian and Ruth Pulsipher Christian entered into a Mining Lease and Option Agreement on the 1st day of February, 1969. This letter is to advise you that our exploration to date indicate that these claims are of no further interest to us and we desire to eliminate them from our exploration program.

In accordance with our understandings and confirming our mutual agreement, Cascade Energy and Metals Corporation and Terra Resources hereby gives notice to you that effective as of this date, we as Lessee hereby abandon our interest in said mining lease and option agreement and the properties covered thereby.

It is understood by us that escrow has not been established, but in the event that there is an escrow existing, please advise us and we will instruct the escrowee to deliver whatever papers are deposited in the escrow to you and close said escrow. We will file the assessment work for the current calendar year as defined by statute and thereafter it is agreed that neither Terra Resources or Cascade Energy & Metals Corporation shall have any obligation to make payments for any expenses with respect to such claims arising after the date of this letter or any other obligations other than is defined in the contract, such expenses to be deemed to include, but not be limited to, cost of working requirements, lease royalties and ad valorem taxes.

Edwin A. Christian
Ruth Pulsipher Christian
