

PROMISSORY NOTE

$45,000.00

Alamo, Nevada

October 5, 1978

On or before five (5) years from the date hereof, for value received, I, the undersigned, D. C. DAY, promise to pay to NEVADA FARMS, INC., a Nevada Corporation, or order, the sum of $45,000.00 principal payable in lawful money of the United States.

Negotiable and payable at Alamo, Nevada, without defalcation or discount.

Should this note be not paid at the time stipulated, the legal holder of this note may declare the same due and proceed at once to collect the principal. If this note be collected by an attorney, with or without suit, the maker agrees to pay a reasonable attorney's fee, the same to be taxed as part of the costs in the case. The maker and endorser of this note expressly waives demand, notice of nonpayment and protest and suit against the maker, and hereby guarantees payment of this note at maturity, or at any time thereafter, and consents that time of payment may be extended without notice.
