Lucy G. Dean, first being duly sworn upon oath, does depose and say:

(1). That she is a citizen of the United States and a citizen of the State of Nevada, and has never "waived" willfully and of her rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to citizens of said sovereign entities;

(2). That Affiant's Constitutional and Civil Rights are now and have in the past been repeatedly violated by malicious and illegal acts of public and private officials who have conspired to deny the Affiant of said Constitutional Rights; and, in further illegal conspiracy have and do prevent the affiant from having "meaningful hearings" and has subjected her to selective persecution.

(3). That Affiant must prior to her exercise of rights under the 2nd Amendment seek redress by way of "common law liens" to protect her claims, both pending in Court as well as claims yet to be filed, as a protection against the acts of these adversaries who have been described by the Courts as "Pettifogging Shysters":

"This combination of epithets every lawyer and citizen knows belongs to none but unscrupulous practitioners who disgrace their profession by doing mean work, and resort to sharp practice to do it." Bailey v. Kalamazoo Pub. Co. Mich. 251, 256.

(4). That despite repeated personal requests upon Public Officials to protect the rights of the Affiant, these Officials have instead condoned, participated, and otherwise aided the "Shysters" described hereinabove and by law these Officials no longer represent the City Government and lay themselves open to personal liability and "common law liens" pursuant to Brookfield Construction Co., Inc. v. Stuart, (1964) 234 F. Supp. 94, 99 (U.S.D.C.: Wash. D.C.) where the Court ruled that: "Any Officer who acts in violation of the Constitution ceases to represent the government." and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. v Sawyer (1952), 343, U.S. 579 where the Court ruled: "We subject ourselves to rulers only if under the rules."

AND FURTHER AFFIANT SAITH NOT.
