

Last Will and Testament

OF
EDITH L. FOLLETT McMANMON

I, EDITH L. FOLLETT McMANMON, of Bend, Oregon, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, and do revoke all Wills and Codicils heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

I direct my Executor to pay from my estate all inheritance, estate, transfer and succession taxes which become payable by reason of my death, and authorize him to contest or compromise any claims for such taxes. I further direct that all such taxes shall be paid without apportionment thereof and without withholding or collecting any part thereof from any beneficiary under my Will or under any life insurance of mine which may be subject to such tax or from the surviving owner of any property owned jointly with me, it being my intention that all such taxes shall be paid from my estate as an expense of administration.

ARTICLE II

I declare that I am the wife of John McManmon, and that we are the parents of James L. McManmon, Jack E. McManmon, Frank R. McManmon and Marvin O. McManmon, all of legal age.

ARTICLE III

I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal and mixed, unto my beloved husband, John McManmon.

In the event my said husband has predeceased me, or should we meet death in a common disaster, or should my husband survive me but die within ninety days of my death, this bequest to him shall lapse, and in lieu thereof I give, devise and bequeath my entire estate, real, personal and mixed, unto my beloved children, James L. McManmon, Jack E. McManmon, Frank R. McManmon and Marvin O. McManmon, equally, share and share alike,

Will of Edith L. Follett McManmon

with a share by right of representation to the surviving issue of any deceased child of mine.

ARTICLE IV

I nominate and appoint my said husband, John McManmon, Executor of this, my Last Will and Testament, and direct that he be permitted to serve as such without bond; in the event my said husband has predeceased me, or is, for any reason, unable or unwilling to act as such Executor, then I nominate and appoint my said son, Frank R. McManmon, as alternate Executor, and direct that he likewise be permitted to serve without bond, with full power to my Executor, without requirement of any order of court, to continue, operate, discontinue or wind up any business, partnership or other contract or transaction in which I may be interested at the time of my death; to borrow money as occasion may require; to compromise, settle or waive any claims due to or by my estate, and to sell for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, assign, transfer, convey, lease or mortgage any real or personal property belonging to my estate, without petition to, or license or leave of court, and without issuance of notice or citation, and without reporting to any court or securing from any court an order authorizing or confirming any such sale or other disposition.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand to this, my Last Will and Testament, this 13th day of July, 1967.

Edith L. Follett McManmon

The foregoing instrument, consisting of three pages, was, on the date it bears, signed, published and declared by EDITH L. FOLLETT MCMANMON to be her Last Will and Testament in our presence, who, at her request and in her presence and in the presence of each other, all being present at the same time, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.
