

All property of any kind whatever, placed by the Grantee upon, over, under, in or on said Streets, whether attached to the realty or not, shall remain the property of the Grantee, and the Grantee shall have the right to remove such property at any time.

This Easement shall include all easements, rights of way, rights, privileges and appurtenances to said Streets which may be necessary, useful or convenient for the full enjoyment of the rights herein granted.

But the Grantors reserve the right to use and enjoy for any purposes for said County and the public said Streets and any part thereof at whatever time said use and enjoyment will not interfere with the full enjoyment of this Easement by the Grantee. This Easement shall not pass to the Grantee any fee title to any part of said Streets.

The Grantee shall have the right to assign any or all of the rights or interest under this Easement without the consent of the Grantors, to any individual, corporation, firm or other entity, public or private, or to any Governmental Agency, municipal, county, State or Federal. It is mutually understood and agreed that any assignee or subassignee of the Grantee may similarly assign such rights or interest as may be assigned to it or them, or its or their successors, heirs or assigns.

The Grantors hereby waive and release any and all claims for damages arising from the activity or in activity of the Grantee in the exercise of this Easement; provided, Grantee shall hold Grantors free and harmless from any and all claims for damage to person or property of others, arising from or in connection with the operations of Grantee hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF this Easement has been executed on this 20th day of April, 1999, by and on behalf of the Grantors.
