NOTICE AND DEMAND

Be It Known, I, Cecilia Anne Wilks demand, pursuant to the discovery of the following law and remedy found in Title 12 United States Code § 411 attached hereto and incorporated fully herein as Exhibit A, that all transactions involving Federal reserve notes transferred and/or deposited to and/or withdrawn from the following Federal Credit Union Member account are to be redeemed for lawful money:

§411. Issuance to reserve banks; nature of obligation; redemption

“Federal reserve notes, to be issued at the discretion of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for the purpose of making advances to Federal reserve banks through the Federal reserve agents as hereinafter set forth and for no other purpose, are authorized. The said notes shall be obligations of the United States and shall be receivable by all national and member banks and Federal reserve banks and for all taxes, customs, and other public dues. They shall be redeemed in lawful money on demand at the Treasury Department of the United States, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, or at any Federal Reserve bank.” (See Exhibit A)

Be It Known, that had James D. Wilks, Jr. and Lillian M. Wilks known in good faith of this remedy during their lifetimes, they not only would have redeemed every single paycheck they had ever received since the beginning of their employment but would have also received all right title and interest to their inheritances, gifts and other property of their ancestors. I consider this remedy being kept from me, my parents to teach it to me, my grandparents to teach my parents and my school teachers etc. to be a form of fraud by omission as evidenced by Section 30 of the Federal Reserve Act omitted from the code.

Be It Known, that this Notice and Demand shall attach to my personal signature card and that until all transactions are corrected in accordance with 26 U.S.C. §1311, and to make certain the foregoing demands are met, I shall write beneath my signature the following:

“Redeemed in Lawful Money 12 U.S.C. 411”

Be It Known, that James D. Wilks, Jr. and Lillian M. Wilks were genealogists and the fruits of their labor inventory evidence all right, title and interest to the estates of their ancestors; said inventory shall be provided to the Secretary of the Treasury and the United States of America Treasurer for redemption pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 5118 & 5119 sent by way of registered postal matter addressed to:

Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20220

If no response is received within (21) days of receiving this notice will result in an automatic default judgment and a permanent and irrevocable estoppel by acquiescence.

Notice to Agent is notice to principal. Notice to Principal is notice to agent.

I, Cecilia Anne Wilks, reserve the right to amend this Notice and Demand upon discovery of additional ancestors and/or other property belonging to the James D. Wilks and Lillian M. Wilks Family Trust.

All efforts to correct the records are intended in pursuance thereof reducing the Public Debt and to the restoration of my ancestor’s arm-length transactions promised full faith and credit to Article I Section 10 gold and silver Coined Money wherein it was secured by my ancestor’s lives, their fortunes and their Sacred Honors.

I, Cecilia Anne Wilks, state that the foregoing facts are true and correct if not rebutted and if called upon I shall testify as to the accuracy of each and every fact based on First-Hand Knowledge and Personal Belief.
