custody or visitation is subject to being punished for a category D felony as provided in NRS 193.130.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to NRS 125C.200, the parties have been advised that should either party intend to move his or her residence to a place outside the State of Nevada and take the minor children with him or her, he or she must, as soon as possible and before the planned move, attempt to obtain the written consent of the other party to move the minor children from the State. If the other party refuses to give that consent, the party planning the move shall, before he or she leaves the State with the minor children, petition the Court for permission to move the children. The failure of the party planning the move to comply with this provision may be considered as a factor if a change of custody is requested by the other party.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to NRS 125.510(7) and (8), the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law are applicable to the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the minor children's habitual residence is located in the County of Clark, State of Nevada, within the United States of America. NRS 125.510(7) and (8) specifically provide as follows:

Section 7. In addition to the language required pursuant to subsection 6, all orders authorized by this section must specify that the terms of the Hague Convention of October 25, 1980, adopted by the 14th Session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, apply if a parent abducts or wrongfully retains a child in a foreign country.

Section 8. If a parent of the child lives in a foreign country or has significant commitments in a foreign country:

(a) The parties may agree, and the Court shall include in the Order for custody of the child that the United States is the country of habitual residence of the child for the purposes of applying the terms of the Hague Convention as set forth in Subsection 7.

(b) Upon motion of the parties, the Court may order the parent to post a bond if the Court determines that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child outside the country of habitual residence. The bond must be in an amount determined by the Court and may be used only to pay for the cost of locating the child and returning him to his habitual residence if the child is wrongfully removed from or concealed outside the country of habitual residence. The fact that a parent has significant commitments in a foreign country does not create a presumption that the parent poses an imminent risk of wrongfully removing or concealing the child

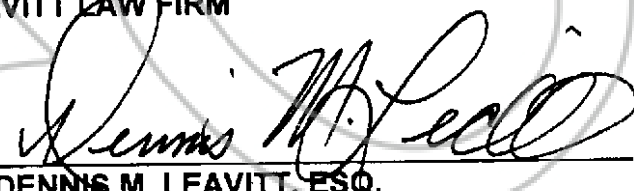

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are hereby advised that they may request a review of child support every three years pursuant to NRS 125B.145.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties have been advised that the non-custodial parent may be subject to the withholding of wages and commissions for delinquent payments of support pursuant to NRS 31A.010, et. seq. and NRS 125.450(2).
